Subarashii Kudamono Named One of Constant Contact's 2010 All Stars

Company's use of Constant Contact products and services helped increase its overall marketing performance and deepen its engagement with customers

Subarashii Kudamono (Eastern Pennsylvania, March 2011) has received the 2010 All Star Award from Constant Contact®, Inc., the trusted marketing advisor to more than 400,000 small organizations worldwide. Subarashii is one of Constant Contact's 2010 top performers and most prolific user of its tools, whether within Constant Contact's email marketing, event marketing, social media marketing, or survey products – or a combination of all four.

Subarashii Kudamono's team: "We're happy to be recognized by Constant Contact for our use of their dynamic email newsletter & marketing services. Constant Contact's tools have helped us effectively communicate delicious information about our Asian Pears, our orchards, and our wines & spirits to our customers and fans. We are thrilled every month by the response we receive from our customers and appreciate their interest in what we are doing."

Constant Contact looked at criteria including the following when selecting this year's All Stars:

- Frequency of campaigns, events and surveys
- Open, bounce and click through rates
- Usage of social features
- Mailing list sign up tools
- Use of reporting tools

"We work hard to listen to our customers, and we use that feedback to create products and services designed to help them better engage with their customers and prospects," said Gail Goodman, chairman, president and CEO of Constant Contact. "The Constant Contact All Star Awards are our way of recognizing our customers that have successfully used Constant Contact to market their companies. We have some of the most committed, passionate customers out there and we're proud we can be a part of their continued success."
